In Nebraska, all motor vehicle liens must be noted on the certificate of title according to Nebraska Revised Statute 60-110. If the lien holder is claiming a vehicle titled in the State of Nebraska, the lien holder's lien should appear on the certificate of title. Therefore, the production of the current certificate of title, showing the lien holder's interest, is mandatory.

For vehicles titled in another state, it is mandatory to see the certificate of title and a loan contract naming the claimant and the current owner.
